The corporate governance of IDEC CORPORATION (hereinafter referred to as the “Company”) is described below.

Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Profile and Other Basic Information

1. Basic Views Update

We, at the Company, believe that ensuring the transparency and efficiency of management for our stakeholders, including our shareholders, is the foundation of our corporate governance. Therefore, we actively appoint outside directors, separate the management supervisory function and the execution function, and always place importance on the transparency and efficiency of management.

We have also established and published the “IDEC Corporate Governance Policy,” which sets forth our views and operational policies regarding corporate governance in the Company Group (hereinafter referred to as “the Group”).

“IDEC Corporate Governance Policy”: <https://us.idec.com/media/governancepolicy2021-EN.pdf>

[Reasons for Non-compliance with the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code]

We respect the purpose of the Corporate Governance Code and are implementing all of its principles.

[Disclosure Based on the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code] Update

[Principle 1.4 Cross-Shareholdings]

In the interest of maintaining its financial health, the IDEC Group does not, in principle, hold shares in other companies except when there is a rationale for doing so.

A rationale for cross-shareholding exists when the Board of Directors has decided that a particular case of cross-shareholding promises to increase the IDEC Group’s corporate value by realizing synergies and improving both sides’ competitive advantages in the market.

Such decisions must be based on a validation of the profitability of the cross-shareholding relationship that duly examines the risks, costs, and returns involved from a medium to long term perspective, and must comprehensively consider the intended aims, such as maintaining and strengthening a business relationship or establishing a capital or business alliance.

Furthermore, the Company regularly validates the significance of existing cross-shareholdings in light of various criteria, including the purpose of holding those shares. If a particular case of cross-shareholding is determined to be inappropriate, the shares are sold off after taking into account diverse considerations such as the impact on the Company and the market, and the issuer’s financial strategy.

We will not continue or reduce inappropriate transactions or interfere with the sale of shares due to shareholdings with companies which hold the Company’s shares as cross-shareholdings. In addition, we will provide opportunities for dialogue with investors as necessary regarding the verification details in the Board of Directors. We exercise our voting rights by comprehensively judging whether the investee company has established an appropriate governance system, is making decisions that will lead to the enhancement of the Group’s corporate value over the medium to long term, and is contributing to the enhancement of our corporate value.

[Principle 1.7 Related Party Transactions]

We have established a monitoring system whereby we periodically confirm with our directors whether or not there have been any related party transactions, and when such transactions have occurred, the Board of Directors votes on them in accordance with the Company’s Board of Directors Regulations, and the Audit and Supervisory Committee verifies the details of such transactions.

In addition, the Board of Directors appropriately oversees whether there are any transactions between the Company and its major shareholders and the details of such transactions.

[Supplementary Principle 2.4.1 Ensuring Diversity including Promotion of Empowerment of Women] in the Company

1. Ensuring diversity in the promotion for core human resources

The Group will strive to create a work environment that promotes diversity, to allow every employee to work on a level playing field regardless of gender, nationality, race, social status, family origin, religion, disability, etc., so that each and every employee with various personalities and values can fully demonstrate their abilities, based on the concept of “Management with respect for humanity.”

(1) Cultivation and promotion of female managers

We promote the empowerment of women as part of our commitment to creating an environment and culture that enable diverse human resources to take on challenges. We have set a goal of having at least 15 female managers at IDEC unconsolidated by the end of FY2025. We also conduct awareness-raising training for senior managers—who are the key to promoting women’s empowerment—and career training for all female employees. The ratio of female managers on a consolidated basis was 23.2% in FY2023.

(2) Recruitment and promotion of foreign nationals

As of the end of FY2023, IDEC unconsolidated had 63 employees who were foreign nationals, including 2 executive officers and 2 department heads. IDEC hires personnel without regard to nationality, and foreign nationals are working in many different departments.

We are also making an effort to improve the environment for foreign nationals, such as translating the minutes of major meetings into multiple languages.

(3) Recruitment and promotion of mid-career personnel

Our recruitment of mid-career talent actively strives to hire people with highly specialized capabilities. In the three years from FY2021 through FY2023, IDEC unconsolidated hired a total of 57 mid-career individuals, of whom 16 were managerial hires.

Moreover, we actively promote the hiring and training of people experienced in DX and AI who can lead business innovation, as well as people with highly specialized knowledge who can be entrusted with engineering sales and new product development and so on and can propose ideal solutions to resolve customer issues.

We will continue to actively recruit mid-career personnel with the specialist capabilities and knowledge needed to strengthen our business.

2. Policies for human resource development and internal environment improvement aimed at ensuring diversity, and their implementation status

The IDEC Group has established the following as its main purpose: “Create the optimum environment for humans and machines, and to achieve safety, ANSHIN, and well-being for people around the world.” This main purpose and the company’s vision (Pioneer the new norm for a safer and sustainable world) constitute “The IDEC Way.” The goal of “The IDEC Way” is to realize a safer and more sustainable society that brings happiness and ANSHIN to all people.

To achieve the vision of the IDEC Group, we will further expand our activities on a global scale and strive to contribute to the resolution of various societal challenges through our business activities. To this end, we have made it a priority to hire and train personnel with diverse strengths who are able to manifest their capabilities and their passion and open the way to the future to become the leaders of the next-generation. We will continue to actively promote diversity & inclusion and carry out a variety of human resource development policies.

We will also protect the safety and mental and physical health of our employees, and will strive to ensure a healthy working environment that is free from discrimination.

[Principle 2.6 Roles of Corporate Pension Funds as Asset Owners]

With regard to the pension assets of the defined-benefit corporate pension plan, we receive regular reports from investment institutions on the investment status and investment policies, etc., and monitor them, taking into account the need to ensure the future payment of benefits to members, i.e., employees and beneficiaries, and the impact on the Company's financial position. In addition, we are making efforts to assign and train personnel with appropriate qualities to ensure that such monitoring can be carried out properly.

We have confirmed that our investment institutions accept Japan's Stewardship Code (Principles for Responsible Institutional Investors), and by entrusting the selection of individual financial instruments and the exercise of voting rights to these institutions, we ensure that there is no conflict of interest between the beneficiaries of the corporate pension plan and the Company.

[Principle 3.1 Full Disclosure]

1. Management Philosophy, Management Strategy and Management Plan

The Company actively disseminates information by posting the Top Message, Management Philosophy, Medium-Term Management Plan and the Integrated Report (IDEC Report) on our website as follows:

Information for Shareholders and Investors: <https://us.idec.com/idec-us/en/USD/ir-en>

Medium-Term Management Plan (FY2023 to FY 2025): <https://us.idec.com/idec-us/en/USD/about-IDEC/ir/medium-term-management-plan>

Integrated Report (IDEC Report): <https://us.idec.com/idec-us/en/USD/about-IDEC/ir/library/annual-reports>

2. Basic Views and Policy on Corporate Governance

Please refer to "1. Basic Views" of "I. Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Profile and Other Basic Information" described above.

As of the date of submission of this report, the Company has 7 directors (excluding directors who are members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee), including 3 outside directors, and there are 3 outside directors who are members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee.

3. Policies for Determining the Remuneration of Directors

For the policies and procedures for determining the remuneration of directors, please refer to [Director Remuneration] "Disclosure of Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods" under "1. Organizational Composition and Operation" of "II. Business Management Organization and Other Corporate Governance Systems regarding Decision-making, Execution of Business, and Oversight in Management" below.

4. Policy and procedure for director appointment and dismissal

The process of selecting candidates for directorships is based on a skills matrix outlining the expected skills and other requirements. The Nominating Committee recommends candidates to the Board of Directors on the basis of the skills matrix review, and the nominations are made part of the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders through voting at a Board of Directors meeting attended by a majority of independent outside directors.

Directors who are deemed to no longer possess the expected skills and qualities of their position are considered for dismissal. Also, if a director is found to have violated laws, regulations, the articles of incorporation, or otherwise be unfit for the discharge of their duties, the Board of Directors, acting on a report by the Nominating Committee, votes on whether to include a proposal for the director's dismissal in the General Meeting of Shareholders agenda. This vote must be made at a meeting attended by a majority of independent outside directors.

5. Individual Reasons for Election of Directors

The reasons for the election and dismissal of individual directors of the Company are stated in the convocation notice of the General Shareholder Meeting.

Notice of the 76th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders: <https://jp.idec.com/media/S202303EN.pdf>

[Supplementary Principle 3.1.3 Sustainability etc.]

1. Commitment to sustainability

We consider the IDEC Group Code of Conduct, the CSR Charter, and the Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact to be important compasses for guiding our actions in line with our company philosophy, "The IDEC Way." We are committed to helping achieve the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) by tackling societal challenges through our business activities. Our efforts toward sustainability are being spearheaded by the CSR Committee we launched in 2018.

Going forward, we will continue taking action under the Basic Sustainability Policy to resolve global challenges through our business activities, with the ultimate aim of realizing a sustainable society. Our efforts include 1) advancing the safety, health, and well-being of all people through our participation in and support for the Vision Zero campaign led by the International Social Security Association (ISSA) under the International Labour Organization (ILO); 2) remaining attentive to climate change and other global environmental issues through our support for the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (TCFD); and 3) preparing to respond to future risks and opportunities.

2. Investment in human capital and intellectual property, etc.

As part of strengthening our business foundation, we conducted an employee engagement survey, extracted issues from the survey results, and have promoted measures to address these issues. They include strengthening of human resource management systems, promotion of diversity and inclusion, and workstyle innovation. Through the resolution of the issues that reflected the opinions of our employees, we will strengthen investment in human capital and seek to improve employee engagement. Please refer to the following our website:

Social: <https://us.idec.com/sustainability/social>

As of May 31, 2023, the Company holds 294 patents and 332 design rights. We recognize that intellectual property is an important corporate asset, make appropriate investments by filing applications and obtaining rights in order to secure advantages in our business and products, while respecting the intellectual property of other companies and working to prevent infringement.

In the process of acquiring rights, we do not simply try to increase the number of rights, but conduct thorough examinations and follow full procedures with the intention of utilizing the rights. Regarding the maintenance of the rights we hold, we re-examine all rights every year to keep up with changes in products and to forestall other companies from gaining advantage, and reevaluate them as our property.

3. Impact of risks and opportunities related to climate change on the Company's business activities and earnings, etc.

The Environmental Strategy Committee, which is a specialist committee of the CSR Committee chaired by the CEO, plays a key role in the effort to disclose climate-related financial information.

The Environmental Strategy Committee meets monthly under direction by the Senior Executive Officer in charge of the Environment. For striving activities further shifted to the environmental management, the Committee was changed its name from the Environment Management Committee to the Environmental Strategy Committee in December 2022 in order to incorporate responses to the environment into business plan strategically. Its activities include the audit of environmental items for eco-friendly products, calculation of product carbon footprint, encouragement of using internal carbon price, preparation for disclosing climate change-related information based on the TCFD recommendations, and planning and operation of the environmental events.

Decisions made by the Environmental Strategy Committee are determined through the CSR Committee or by the direct submission to the Top Management Meeting, where the policy is decided, and then reported to the Board of Directors.

The Company has published the details of the above items in our website as follows:

Environment: <https://us.idec.com/idec-us/en/USD/sustainability/environment>

[Supplementary Principle 4.1.1 Role and Responsibility of the Board of Directors]

We have established the Board of Directors Regulations, the Management Committee Regulations, and Administrative Authority Regulations, which stipulate matters to be resolved by the Board of Directors, matters to be resolved by the Management Committee, and matters that can be decided according to each position. Based on these regulations, the Board of Directors decides management policies and important matters, and based on these policies and decisions, business execution is carried out by the directors in charge of business execution and executive officers.

[Principle 4.9 Independence Standards and Qualification for Independent Directors]

In order to ensure the transparency and soundness of management, we have established the "Policy on Independence of Outside Directors" as described in [Independent Directors] "Matters relating to Independent Directors" under "1. Organizational Composition and Operation" of "II. Business Management Organization and Other Corporate Governance Systems regarding Decision-making, Execution of Business, and Oversight in Management" below. All of the 6 outside directors as of the date of submission of this report meet those requirements.

[Supplementary Principle 4.10.1 Use of Voluntary Structure]

As of the date of submission of this report, the Board of Directors of the Company consists of 10 members, of which 4 are inside directors and 6 are independent outside directors, so the majority of the Board of Directors are independent outside directors.

As an advisory body to the Board of Directors, the Company has established the Nominating Committee and Remuneration Committee, the majority of which consists of independent outside directors. For more details, please refer to [Voluntary Establishment of Nominating/Remuneration Committee] "Supplementary explanation" under "1. Organizational Composition and Operation" of "II. Business Management Organization and Other Corporate Governance Systems regarding Decision-making, Execution of Business, and Oversight in Management" below.

[Supplementary Principle 4.11.1 Skill Matrix]

Since the Board of Directors of the Company supervises the execution of business and makes important policy decisions, we believe that it is desirable for the Board of Directors to consist of directors who have diverse and abundant experience, broad perspectives, and a high level of expertise. The knowledge, experience and skills of each director are disclosed as a skills matrix in the convocation notice of the General Shareholder Meeting, the Integrated Report (IDEC Report), etc.

Notice of the 76th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders: <https://jp.idec.com/media/S202303EN.pdf>

Integrated Report (IDEC Report): <https://jp.idec.com/media/IDECReport2023-EN.pdf>

In addition, as of the date of submission of this report, 3 woman outside directors and 2 directors with management experience at other companies have been appointed.

For the policy and procedures for the appointment of directors, please refer to the section 4 of [Principle 3.1 Full Disclosure] above.

[Supplementary Principle 4.11.2 Status of Concurrent Position of Directors]

In case a director in charge of business execution concurrently serves as an officer of another company, the Board of Directors Regulations stipulate that the matter requires approval by the Board of Directors from the perspective of conflict of interest. In addition, if any director concurrently serves as an officer of another listed company, it is disclosed in the business report (the convocation notice of the General Shareholder Meeting).

Notice of the 76th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders: <https://jp.idec.com/media/S202303EN.pdf>

[Supplementary Principle 4.11.3 Evaluation of the Effectiveness of the Board of Directors]

1. Method of evaluation

In order to improve the effectiveness of the Board of Directors, an evaluation of all directors except the CEO has been conducted using a questionnaire method every year since FY2016.

Since FY2022, a third-party organization has conducted the questionnaire survey and analyzed the responses. The results of their evaluation are reported to the Board of Directors, whose members share the issues identified and continuously strive to make improvements.

2. Results of third-party evaluations in FY2023

The FY2023 evaluation found that the board's effectiveness had improved over the previous year with respect to discussion of the business portfolio, director involvement in remuneration system design and the successor training plan, and dialogue with shareholders, among other areas. On the whole, the board was judged to function effectively, but several issues were identified. The Company has published the action and improvement to address the key issues in Integrated Report (IDEC Report).

Integrated Report (IDEC Report): <https://jp.idec.com/media/IDECReport2023-EN.pdf>

[Supplementary Principle 4.14.2 Training for Directors]

When newly appointed executive officers take office, we will provide explanations of legal obligations, responsibilities, etc., as necessary, and provide opportunities for outside directors to deepen their understanding of the Company's business. In addition, we will gather and provide various types of information necessary for directors to fulfill their roles and functions, including information on the business environment and systems, and promote participation in and holding training sessions using outside experts, etc. as necessary.

[Principle 5.1 Policy for Constructive Dialogue with Shareholders]

We proactively engage with our shareholders and investors to gain their confidence in and fair evaluation of our management, with the aim of facilitating the IDEC Group's sustainable growth and improving its corporate value over the medium to long-term.

This includes diligently responding to requests for interviews from shareholders and individual and institutional investors. Information acquired from those interactions, including appraisals and opinions concerning markets, is regularly reported to the Board of Directors.

In FY2023, we received the opinions of shareholders and investors on matters such as the activities of outside directors, the efforts of the Nominating Committee and Remuneration Committee, training of next-generation executive candidates, and our environmental initiatives. These opinions were shared as feedback with the Board of Directors, and we are taking concrete action to address them, while working to further expand disclosure. We are also continuing to enhance investor relations tools such as our Shareholder Newsletter and website to better help shareholders and individual investors make informed investment decisions. At the same time, we proactively disclose our financial results, management strategy, and sustainability actions, and publish news and features on various topics.

Appointment of Directors and/or Staff to Support the Audit and Supervisory Committee

Appointed

Matters Related to the Independence of Such Directors and/or Staff from Executive Directors

The Audit and Supervisory Committee has the authority to give orders to the Internal Auditing Department, and the personnel affairs of employees belonging to the Internal Auditing Department and the Secretariat of the Audit and Supervisory Committee, including issues such as appointments, transfers, evaluations, and wages, must be decided upon after prior consultation with and consent from the Audit and Supervisory Committee, thereby ensuring independence from the executive departments. In addition, executive directors have established a system for reporting to the Audit and Supervisory Committee, which prohibits any disadvantageous treatment to those who make reports.

Cooperation among Audit and Supervisory Committee, Accounting Auditors and Internal Auditing Departments

[Cooperation Between Audit and Supervisory Committee and Accounting Auditors]

As a rule, the Audit and Supervisory Committee and the accounting auditors recognize the need to secure mutual independence and to maintain mutual trust. In addition, based on the audit plan at the beginning of the year and the quarterly and year-end financial statements, they hold regular reporting meetings about four times a year as per the annual plan. In addition, they have established a system of cooperation that allows them to report to each other as necessary on events related to accounting audits.

[Cooperation Between Audit and Supervisory Committee and Internal Auditing Departments]

For the internal audit function, the Company has established the Internal Auditing Department under the administrative authority of the Representative Director Chairman and President, and the Audit and Supervisory Committee has the authority to monitor the Internal Auditing Department including requesting reports from it, and also has the authority to give direct orders.

- (6) He/she is not a major shareholder of the Company or an executive of such a shareholder.
- (7) He/she did not fall under any of (1) through (6) above during the five years prior to his/her appointment as a director.
- (8) He/she is not the spouse or a relative within the second degree of relationship of a person who falls under any of (1) through (6) above.

[Incentives]

Incentive Policies for Directors

Performance-linked Remuneration

< Overview of Remuneration system >

Remuneration for directors other than outside directors and directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee members comprises basic remuneration (a fixed amount based on position), performance-linked remuneration (bonus), and non-monetary (share-based) remuneration, calculated in a ratio of 60:25: 15. Remuneration for outside directors and directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee members is limited to fixed basic remuneration, in the interest of preserving the independence of their management oversight role.

< Framework of Remuneration >

■ Basic remuneration

Fixed monthly amount determined by comprehensively taking into account the director's position/duties and the Company's performance.

■ Performance-based remuneration (bonus)

Performance-based cash remuneration whose amount reflects the relevant KPIs. The amount is paid in 12 equal monthly installments, together with the monthly basic remuneration. Specifically, the amount is calculated by multiplying the standard bonus set for the position by a payout coefficient (0–200%) indicative of the director's performance for the fiscal year.

■ Non-monetary (share-based) remuneration

Comprises performance share units as a medium-term incentive, and restricted stocks as a long-term incentive.

Performance share units are provided in the form of the Company's common stock, subject to restrictions on transfer. The amount is based on a finalized number of share units calculated by multiplying the number of share units provided to each position by a payout coefficient reflecting the degree of achievement of financial KPIs and nonfinancial KPIs (e.g., CO2 reduction rate) that are focuses of the medium-term management plan.

Restricted stocks are provided in the form of the Company's common stock, subject to restrictions on transfer. The amount is equivalent to a standard amount determined by taking into account the Company's performance, the scope of the director's duties, and various circumstances. In cases where the director is not a resident of Japan as of the provision of share-based remuneration, an equivalent amount of phantom shares is provided in lieu of performance share units and restricted stocks.

In cases where a director is guilty of serious misconduct, violations, etc., the Board of Directors will, based on the report made by the Remuneration Committee, demand forfeiture or repayment of the director's bonus and share-based remuneration, partially or in full.

Remuneration at the individual level is discussed by the Remuneration Committee, which reports the results to the Board of Directors. Decisions on matters concerning individual remuneration are made solely by the CEO at Board meetings where independent outside directors constitute the majority. In making these decisions, the CEO is expected to respect the Remuneration Committee's report.

Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods	Established

Disclosure of Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods

1. Basic policy

In order to ensure that remuneration for the Company's directors (excl. outside directors and directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) functions sufficiently as an incentive for the sustainable improvement of corporate value, when determining the remuneration of each director, basic remuneration, performance-linked remuneration (bonus) and non-monetary remuneration (stock-based remuneration) shall be paid as fixed remuneration in accordance with their responsibilities in consideration of the scope and scale of management.

Outside directors and directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members receive only base remuneration as fixed remuneration because they are responsible for supervising the management of the Company from an independent perspective.
2. Policy for determining the amount of basic remuneration (monetary remuneration) for each individual (including policy for determining the timing and conditions for granting remuneration)

The basic remuneration for the Company's directors is fixed monthly remuneration, which is determined by comprehensively taking into account the position, responsibilities and financial situation of the Company.
3. Policy for determining the details of performance-linked remuneration, etc., and non-monetary remuneration, as well as the number or calculation method (including policy for determining the timing and conditions for granting remuneration)
 - (1) Performance-linked remuneration (bonus)

In addition to the monthly basic remuneration, bonuses are paid monthly in 12 equal installments as performance-linked cash remuneration that reflects Key Performance Indicators (KPI), in order to raise awareness of improving performance each fiscal year and to clarify commitments to stakeholders on these matters. The Company shall calculate bonuses by multiplying the base amount for bonus calculation specified for each officer based on the Company performance payment factor (0% to 200%). The KPIs used for the calculation of bonuses shall be the consolidated operating profit ratio for each fiscal year and personnel evaluations related to performance, etc., for the departments they are in charge of (excl. executive directors).
 - (2) Non-monetary remuneration (stock-based remuneration)
 - (2)-1 Details of stock-based remuneration

Stock-based remuneration consists of performance share units (hereinafter, PSU) as a medium-term incentive and restricted stock (hereinafter, RS) as a long-term incentive. Share units and ordinary shares (with restrictions on transfer) calculated in accordance with the position shall be allotted annually at a fixed time.

If a director is a non-resident at the time of granting stock-based remuneration, an equivalent amount of phantom stock shall be granted instead of PSU and RS.
 - (2)-2 Policy for determining the calculation method for numbers
 - (2)-2-1 PSU

As for PSU, the Company shall issue shares of common stock of the Company with transfer restrictions in accordance with the number of fixed share units, which is calculated by multiplying the share units granted for each position by the payment factor corresponding to the degree of achievement of financial indicators and non-financial indicators, which are emphasized in the Medium-term Management Plan (1 share unit = 1 common share). The KPIs used to calculate PSU shall be the degree of achievement of the targets set forth in the Medium-term Management Plan as financial indicators, the degree of achievement of ESG-related targets as non-financial indicators, and personnel evaluations related to performance, etc., for the departments they are in charge of (excl. executive directors)
 - (2)-2-2 RS

As for RS, the Company shall allocate shares of common stock of the Company with transfer restrictions in a number equal to the base amount annually at a fixed time, determined in light of the business results of the Company, the scope of responsibilities of each director and various circumstances.
4. Policy for determining the ratio of monetary remuneration, performance-linked remuneration, etc., or non-monetary remuneration, etc., to the amount of remuneration, etc., for an individual director

The ratio of each type of remuneration for the Company's directors (excl. outside directors and directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) shall be set at base remuneration, bonus, PSU and RS = 60:25:10:5, with reference to other companies in the same industry and of the same scale, and in consideration of the level of salaries, social conditions, etc., of the Company's employees (This shall be the standard that serves as a guideline for achieving 100% of the performance targets).

The level of remuneration and the proportion of remuneration shall be reviewed based on a report from the Remuneration Committee, as appropriate, taking into consideration the Company's business environment, social conditions and other circumstances.
5. Matters concerning determining the details of remunerations, etc., for each director individually

When determining individual remunerations, etc., the Remuneration Committee shall discuss, in addition to each position, the business performance for executive directors, the expertise and outside management experience for outside directors, etc., and report the details to the Board of Directors. Ultimately, the Board of Directors, the majority of which consists of independent outside directors, shall leave individual remuneration to the discretion of the Representative Director Chairman and President. The Representative Director Chairman and President shall make their decisions on individual remuneration, etc., respecting the recommendations of the Remuneration Committee.
6. Malus and clawback of remuneration, etc.

In case a director of the Company has committed any serious misconduct or violation, based on the recommendation by the Remuneration Committee, the Company shall demand the forfeiture or return of all or part of the bonus and stock-based remuneration.

[Supporting System for Outside Directors] Update

The Strategic Planning Department serves as the secretariat of the Board of Directors, and assists in the duties of outside directors as requested by them or as necessary, and liaises between inside and outside directors as needed. With the objective of enhancing communication among outside directors' exchange session have been held since FY2019, and outside directors exchange their views and have a discussion on corporate governance, products, the business of the Company, and medium- to long-term strategic policies of the Company, etc..

2. Matters related to functions such as business execution, auditing/supervision, nomination, and determination of remuneration (Overview of the current corporate governance system) Update

1 Business execution functions

■Board of Directors

The Board of Directors, consisting of 10 directors (including 6 outside directors), makes decisions on management policies and other important matters, and supervises the execution of duties by directors. The Board of Directors deliberates in accordance with management policies to prevent violations of laws and regulations as well as the Articles of Incorporation. In FY2023, the Board of Directors met a total of 7 times.

■Management Committee

The President serves as the chairperson and the Committee formulates management strategies and important policies. The meeting details are promptly reported to other directors, and information is shared with executive officers and others as appropriate, which contributes to strengthening the functions of the Board of Directors and enhancing management efficiency. In FY2023, the Management Committee met a total of 8 times.

■Executive Officers Committee

At the Executive Officers Committee meetings executive officers who are also responsible for the respective functions report on the progress and issues as appropriate. In FY2023, the Executive Officers Committee met a total of 12 times.

■Nominating Committee

The Company established a voluntary Nominating Committee in 2021 as an advisory body to the Board of Directors for objective, independent decision-making on director nominations and plans for developing next-generation executive candidates. The committee is made up of a majority of outside directors and frankly communicates its objective opinions on candidate selection and training to the management.

Our succession planning program seeks to continually cultivate talent who can help lead our sustainable growth worldwide. Candidates for representative director and other executive positions are provided with general management training tailored to their future duties, and with opportunities to participate in important meetings, including the Top Management Meeting and the Executive Officers' Meeting.

The Nominating Committee receives reports on the progress of development of candidates, and expresses opinions on succession planning to the Board of Directors.

In FY2023, the Nominating Committee met a total of 3 times, and all members attended all committee.

Please refer to [Voluntary Establishment of Nominating/Remuneration Committee] "Supplementary explanation" under "1. Organizational Composition and Operation" of "II. Business Management Organization and Other Corporate Governance Systems regarding Decision-making, Execution of Business, and Oversight in Management" described above.

■Remuneration Committee

As was indicated by the results of the survey on the effectiveness of the Board of Directors and by other observations, there were issues in the design of our system of remuneration for directors, and a need to establish a Remuneration Committee. The Company launched a voluntary Remuneration Committee with a majority of outside directors on October 1, 2022 as a body for reviewing and deliberating on the director remuneration system. Since then, the committee has been examining remuneration system proposals.

Through this committee, we are working to increase objectivity and transparency in not only next-generation executive training and selection, but also the remuneration decision making process.

In FY2023, the committee reviewed and discussed our officer remuneration system with the input of outside experts. Using the insights gained, the committee developed a new grand design for remuneration.

In FY2023, the Remuneration Committee met a total of 3 times, and all members attended all committee.

■CSR Committee

In April 2018, the Company established the "CSR Committee," chaired by the President, to fulfill its corporate social responsibility (CSR) toward the realization of a sustainable society. The Committee deliberates on the Group's medium-term and annual CSR plans, systems, and progress, and reports to the Board of Directors.

With the three areas of Environment, Social, and Governance, which have recently become increasingly important as corporate value standards, we have combined additional two areas of Safety (Sa) and Quality (Q), which are the cornerstones of the Company as a manufacturer that "makes safety." We have established specialized committees for each of these five priority areas to study and promote company-wide measures tailored to each theme.

2. Audit functions

■Audits by the Audit and Supervisory Committee

With respect to audits by the Audit and Supervisory Committee, Audit and Supervisory Committee members attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and conduct field audits of internal departments, thereby having sufficiently monitored and supervised the execution of duties by directors (excluding directors who are members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee) and executive officers. In addition, the Audit and Supervisory Committee, which consists of 3 directors, regularly meets to monitor business execution in terms of legality, etc. In FY2023, the Audits by the Audit and Supervisory Committee met a total of 9 times.

■Internal Audits

As for internal audits, the Internal Auditing Department, under the administrative authority of the Representative Director Chairman and President as well as the Audit and Supervisory Committee, consists of 3 employees. The Internal Auditing Department regularly conducts the internal audit with respect to business in each department including headquarter functions, accounting, compliance and business risks etc., monitors the execution of duties and timely and appropriately advise on improvement in efficiency of business. The Internal Auditing Department directly reports the results of internal audit to the Audit and Supervisory Committee as well as Representative Director Chairman and President to ensure the effectiveness of internal audit.

■Accounting Audits

As for the accounting audits, the Company receives full-year financial statement audits, internal control audits, and quarterly reviews in accordance with the provisions of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act.

In FY2023, the Company was audited by two certified public accountants, Takashi Iwabuchi and Keiko Hishimoto, both of whom have been auditing the Company for less than seven years. The number of assistants involved in the Company's accounting audit operation is 12 certified public accountants and 15 others. Apart from that, our major overseas subsidiaries are audited by local auditing firms.

3. Agreement Limiting Liability

All of the directors, excluding executive directors, etc., have entered into an agreement with the Company to limit their liability for compensation in accordance with the provisions of Article 427, Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act, and the amount of liability based on this agreement is capped by the amount stipulated in laws and regulations.

3. Reasons for Adoption of Current Corporate Governance System Update

The Company has shifted to a Company with an Audit and Supervisory Committee at the 71st Ordinary General Shareholder Meeting held on June 15, 2018, with the aim of further speeding up decision-making, strengthening the supervisory function for business execution from a social and multifaceted perspective. The Company has also realized a “separation of execution and supervision” under a system based on auditing and supervision by the cooperation of outside directors appointed for the purpose of ensuring management transparency, and business execution by representative directors and executive officers.

We believe that as an appropriate corporate governance body is functioning by having fair and objective supervision and auditing conducted through this system.

[Reporting Systems]

(1) Directors (excluding directors who are members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee) and employees of the Company and the Group companies shall periodically report to the Audit and Supervisory Committee on the status of execution of their duties, and shall report as needed on important corporate matters in particular. In addition, the Audit and Supervisory Committee may request reports from the directors (excluding directors who are members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee) and employees of the Company and the Group companies as necessary, and the Company shall improve the cooperation system of related departments so that audits can be conducted more effectively in the future.

(2) The Company shall not give any disadvantageous treatment to directors (excluding directors who are members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee) and employees of the Company and the Group companies who have reported to the Audit and Supervisory Committee in accordance with the preceding item.

(3) Executive Directors shall establish an environment in which Directors who are members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee can periodically exchange opinions with Directors (excluding Directors who are members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee) of the Company and the Group companies and can attend important meetings such as Management Committee meetings.

[Cooperation with Internal Auditing Department]

The Audit and Supervisory Committee shall strengthen the cooperation with the Internal Auditing Department and may request the Internal Auditing Department to report and exchange information on a regular basis, and the Company shall secure such opportunities. In addition, the Audit and Supervisory Committee shall have the administrative authority to direct and order the Internal Auditing Department.

[Expenses, etc.]

The Company shall budget a certain amount of money each year to cover expenses, etc. incurred in the execution of duties by the Audit and Supervisory Committee.

<Operational Status>

The Group is developing and operating an internal control system, and the operation status for the last consolidated fiscal year under review is as follows.

(1) Systems for corporate governance

- The Company has actively appointed Outside Directors. As of the end of the consolidated fiscal year under review, the Company has appointed six Outside Directors out of nine Directors. Of those, the number of female Directors has increased by two from last year to three. These Outside Directors with diverse backgrounds and expertise supervise the management and actively provide advice at meetings of the Board of Directors, thereby enhancing the transparency of the Board of Directors and further strengthening the supervisory function.

- As an opportunity to enhance communication among Outside Directors, the Company has continuously held "Outside Directors' Exchange Sessions." During the consolidated fiscal year under review, Outside Directors visited production offices to deepen their understanding of production sites and exchange views on improving production functions, which is one of our priority issues.

- With the aim of further strengthening its corporate governance system, the Company continued to outsource the evaluation of the effectiveness of the Board of Directors to third-party organizations during the consolidated fiscal year under review, identifying issues from an objective perspective and developing improvement measures.

- The voluntary Nominating Committee, a majority of whose members are Outside Directors, met three times during the consolidated fiscal year under review. As the Nominating Committee, the Committee reviewed the status of training for the candidates for the next generation of executives and made recommendations to the Board of Directors on the selection of all candidates for Directors, including new ones.

- On October 1, 2022, the Company established a voluntary Remuneration Committee, a majority of whose members are Outside Directors. The Committee met three times during the consolidated fiscal year under review to discuss the re-examination of the remuneration system for Directors.

- Through close communication with each Group company and other means, we continued to strengthen corporate governance and realize synergies through integration throughout the Group.

(2) Systems for compliance

- In order to publicize the Group's stance on corruption, including bribery and profiteering, both internally and externally, we have developed the "Anti-corruption Policy" and declared that the entire Group will work to prevent corruption.
- In the Group, we held training sessions on compliance at each level, as well as harassment-prevention training for managers by the corporate lawyer.
- The Company has established the "Hotline" as a point of contact for consultation and reporting on violations of laws and regulations and internal rules, and on other inappropriate misconduct under normal social conventions. We have also been expanding the "Global Hotline" where our overseas Group companies can directly report to the point of contact at the head office, and during the consolidated fiscal year under review, have established one for overseas production sites in China.

(3) Systems for information storage and management

- The Group continued to hold training sessions on information management to raise awareness of information management, and worked on the enhancement of information management at departments handling critical information and Group companies.

(4) Systems for risk management

- In order to avoid or minimize crises in the Group, the Company has established the "Risk Management Committee" as an expert committee under the CSR Committee to monitor the status of risk assessment and measures to address risks.
- The Company has developed a BCP (Business Continuity Plan) for distribution centers and major production offices in Japan to confirm the safety of employees and their families, confirm the operating status of supply chains and business sites, and develop business continuity planning systems. We have promoted the development of the initial response flow and various manuals in case of a disaster and the measures to prevent or mitigate disasters.
- The Company has established the "Risk Monitoring Subcommittee" within the "Risk Management Committee" to strengthen the systems for evaluating the risks surrounding the Group, identifying high-risk events, and monitoring efforts to reduce those risks, and has developed a risk map that assesses various risks to monitor the efforts of each department to reduce risks.

(5) Systems to ensure efficient performance of duties

- The Board of Directors actively exchanges opinions involving Outside Directors, and held meetings seven times during the consolidated fiscal year under review. We have strengthened cooperation with the Executive Officers Committee and the Top Management Meeting, and established a system that enables efficient discussion and decision-making according to each role.
- The Company has established the "Administrative Authority Regulations," the "Affiliated Company Management Regulations" and the "Ringi Approval Regulations" which stipulate the responsibilities, authority, etc. of Directors, executive officers, and employees of the Company and the Group companies, examined the necessity of revising the respective regulations based on the organizational structure, and partially revised them in the consolidated fiscal year under review.

(6) Systems to ensure the appropriateness of operations in the Group

- The Company has established the "Affiliated Company Management Regulations" for the mutual cooperation and prosperity of the Company and the Group companies, and the Group companies have reported on their performance, etc. to the Company based on the Regulations. In addition, the related departments including the Company's Internal Auditing Department, etc. monitored and audited the Group companies as appropriate.
- We have published the "IDEC Group Code of Conduct" on the Company intranet after adding the languages used, to further raise awareness on a global basis.
- We have established a risk map that includes these Group companies, and are sequentially expanding the scope of the companies subject to risk monitoring activities in the Group.

(7) Systems to ensure the reliability of financial reporting

- In order to ensure the reliability of financial reporting, the Company assessed the operational status of internal controls.

(8) Systems to ensure an effective audit by Audit and Supervisory Committee Members

- The Company has established the Secretariat of the Audit and Supervisory Committee within the Internal Auditing Department, and has appointed the General Manager of the Internal Auditing Department as the chief of the Secretariat, with one office employee with expertise (concurrently serving as the internal auditor) serving as the Secretariat staff.
- The Company places the Internal Auditing Department under the administrative authority of the Representative Directors and the Audit and Supervisory Committee, and in particular, the Chairman of the Audit and Supervisory Committee gives independent and direct administrative orders to the Secretariat of the Audit and Supervisory Committee.
- The Chairman of the Audit and Supervisory Committee, who is an appointed Audit and Supervisory Committee Member, participates in important meetings other than the Board of Directors meetings such as the Top Management Meeting, etc. The chief of the Secretariat inspects minutes, etc. of the Board of Directors meetings and other important meetings, ringi approval materials for decision-making of business execution, and other important documents whenever necessary, and continues to make necessary reports to the Audit and Supervisory Committee.
- The Audit and Supervisory Committee held nine meetings during the consolidated fiscal year under review, and Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members interviewed two Representative Directors at two of these meetings on management issues, etc. In addition, the Company requested Executive Officers, etc. of the Internal Control Departments, such as the Accounting Department, etc. and other business execution departments to attend the Committee meetings and conducted necessary interviews.
- During the consolidated fiscal year under review, directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members conducted audits of distribution bases, and the Chairman of the Audit and Supervisory Committee conducted an audit of two Group companies, having confirmed the status of the development and operation of the internal control system. In addition, the Audit and Supervisory Committee received detailed reports on all audits and investigations conducted by the Internal Auditing Department before and after the audits, etc. were conducted, and made the necessary requests, etc.
- The audit plan of the Audit and Supervisory Committee was voted on at the Audit and Supervisory Committee meeting held in July and reported to the Board of Directors.
- The Audit and Supervisory Committee voted on the activity budget at the Audit and Supervisory Committee meeting held in July, notified it to the Representative Directors, and gave instructions to the Accounting Department regarding expenditure procedures. Although no such expenses were incurred during the consolidated fiscal year under review, the Company continues to ensure a system whereby the Chairman of the Audit and Supervisory Committee can independently allow ringi approval for unbudgeted expenses in the event of corporate scandals, etc.

2. Basic Views on Eliminating Anti-Social Forces and the Progress of Development of Measures

■Basic Views on Eliminating Anti-Social Forces and Systems for Development of Measures

The Company has a basic policy to eliminate all involvement, including business relationships, with anti-social forces and groups that threaten the order and safety of civil society when fulfilling its social responsibility in corporate activities, and declares in the "IDEC Code of Conduct" that it shall strive to continue as a law-abiding and fair company.

In addition, the Company has clearly defined antisocial forces as a "crisis" in its "Crisis Management Regulations" to prevent crises from occurring and to respond promptly when they occur, as well as gather information on a daily basis and formulate a "Manual for Dealing with Illegal Forces" to prepare for unreasonable demands in cooperation with police authorities and lawyers.

<Operational Status>

Systems to eliminate anti-social forces

- The Company has declared that it will continue to be a fair company and regularly informed its employees about this declaration through training sessions, etc.

- The entire company has collected information on the trends of anti-social forces on a daily basis and secured a system to prepare for unreasonable demands.

■ Outline of Timely Disclosure

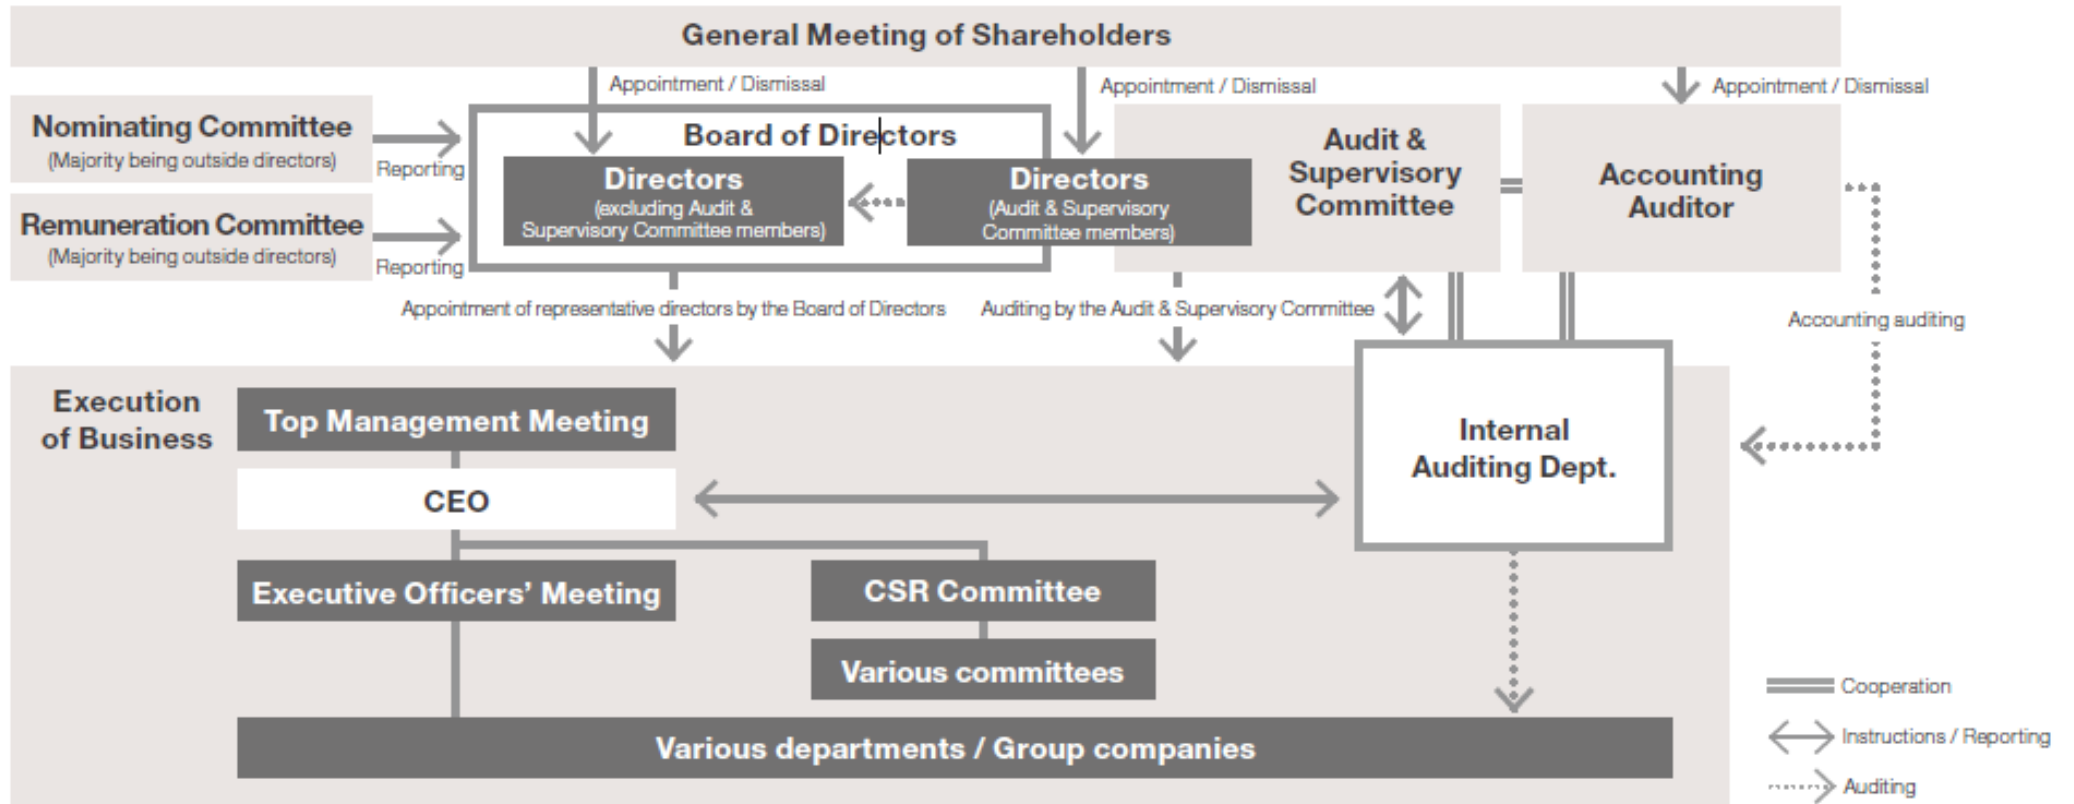

1. Basic Views

The “IDEC Group Code of Conduct,” which was established as a code of conduct for all directors and employees of the Group, states that we will fulfill our corporate accountability by disclosing management philosophy and information such as business plans and results at appropriate times and in appropriate ways, and the entire group is working together to promote awareness and practice of this code. In addition to the Code of Conduct, we have established internal regulations regarding the management and timely disclosure of corporate information, such as the “Confidential Information Management Regulations” and “Insider Trading Regulations,” and have built a system to appropriately implement prompt, accurate and fair disclosure of corporate information.

2. Internal Systems

The Company has established a system whereby information pertaining to decisions, events and facts, and the settlement of accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries is consolidated into the Strategic Planning Department through the heads of each department and the presidents of the subsidiaries. Within this system, the executive officer in charge of corporate strategy planning, who is responsible for information management, oversees and manages such information, thereby ensuring the appropriate management of undisclosed material facts, etc. and the prevention of insider trading. From all aggregated information, the Corporate Strategy Planning Department selects, based on strict and fair judgment, information that meets the disclosure standards of the “Rules on Timely Disclosure of Corporate Information by Issuers of Listed Securities” stipulated by the Tokyo Stock Exchange, Inc., and in principle, discloses such information immediately based on a resolution of the Board of Directors. In addition, we are making utmost efforts to ensure the appropriateness of the content of each disclosure document by having it prepared and verified by the relevant departments from their respective standpoints, which clarifies the division of authority and enhances the internal check and balance function.
